Men's Club to Celebrate Its Second Anniversary

Party Sunday Morning Will Also Honor Little Dorothy Mae Bruce, Mascot of Both Breakfast Clubs

Not only will the big party Sunday morning climax two years of achievement by the Men's Breakfast Club, but it will also serve as a tribute to little Dorothy Mae Bruce, who celebrated her second birthday on February 10.

It was shortly after her arrival that her proud parents were notified that a number of Bruce's friends wished to present him with a suitable gift. He was invited to attend a gathering at Wilson's and it was here, with a great deal of hilarious activity that a deluxe model baby carriage was presented to him.

From this gathering there shortly emerged an organization of men that gave itself the title of the Men's Breakfast Club. The group announced at that time that such an enjoyable morning had been spent that some permanent organization had to be formed to insure future gatherings where goodfellowship could prevail.

WOMEN STARTED CLUB

It wasn't very long afterward when news of the formation of a rival group by the women came out. Observing the good time and enjoyment that the men were deriving, the ladies had banded together in the Women's Breakfast Club, under the leadership of Mrs. Beatrice Raymond as president.

Fittingly, the men had chosen Don Bruce as their president, and under his guidance and with the full co-operation of the rapidly increasing membership, the club launched an ambitious program of activities.

Both groups, although professing a bitter rivalry, had combined meetings at announced intervals, each of course trying to outdo the other on such occasions. One thing they did have in common, and still have for that matter, is their mascot, Dorothy. As the two clubs have grown, prospered and gathered prestige unto themselves, so has little Dorothy grown up into a diminutive bundle of vivacity and loveliness that is the pride and joy of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce.

From memory's portfolio of happy events, one may recall the many enjoyable meetings of both groups, their big shows and dinners when each tried to outshine the other in a way that would leave no doubt as to its own superiority.

CLUBS COOPERATED

One would decide on an enterprise, need a little help and the other would rush in with all its members anxious and eager to do their part.

After an extremely successful year in office, Don Bruce turned over his chair to Ed Ryken, who was chosen to head the clubmen on April 5, 1936. The men, appreciating the peerless efficiency of Harry Dygert in the position of secretary, prevailed upon him to accept a second term.

From this eventful meeting, held at Scheik's on Solano Avenue, began a parade in which the new president and the re-elected secretary, attired in baby garb with colorful additions, were taken through the streets of the city and finally brought to the corner of Solano and San Pablo Avenues where a large delegation from the Women's Club were gathered.

They, too, had just held an election, choosing Mrs. Raymond as their leader for a second term. Many gifts of infants' wear and similar articles were publicly presented to the crimson-faced Ryken and Dygert while cameras clicked and everyone cheered.

"MACGREGOR DAY" IDEA

Early in his term, Ryken received a suggestion that the group put on a huge celebration in September in honor of Charles M. MacGregor, often called "the builder of the city." Joe Villa was appointed chairman of arrangements and plans were speedily drawn up for what turned out to be the biggest event ever put on in this city.

Not only the Women's Club, but every other organization in Albany accepted the invitation to take part, resulting in a huge parade, activities in all the parks during the day and night and finishing in a blaze of glory at the Veterans Memorial Building that

Women Enjoy "Kid" Party

Sun bonnet "babies" and "Little Boy Blues" were very much in evidence at the "Kiddies' Party" given by Albany Parlor, N. D. G. W. on their last regular meeting night.

After the agenda was completed the evening was turned over to hilarity. Among the most striking costumes were a petite girl's dress of pink silk and lace trimmed with rosebuds and set off with an enormous hairbow, worn by Miss Grayce Higgins; a nautical ensemble, consisting of blue mid-dy and slacks, Mrs. Hazlett Taylor; a Tom Sawyer outfit by Mrs. Dorothy Mullins, and the tattered gingham garb of Raggedy Anne of Mrs. Margy Walsh.

Mrs. Walsh who is captain of the drill team of Argonaut Parlor, carried off first prize for the best sustained character. Following a lively evening of juvenile games, refreshments of ice cream and cake were served on the floor, kiddie fashion.

Last Monday evening members of the N.D.G.W. Sewing Club were scheduled to meet at the home of Mrs. Leah Menefee, 1623 San Gabrielle Avenue, but many were confined to their homes by illness and only two were able to attend, Mrs. Hazlett Taylor and Miss Grayce Higgins.

The first meeting in March will be followed by a birthday party given in honor of the members whose natal day falls in this month: Mrs. Isabelle Diaz, Mrs. Althea Hart, Mrs. Hazlett Taylor and Miss Grayce Higgins.

The entertainment, in keeping with the celebration of the Parlor's second birthday, consisted of: "Mary Had a Little Lamb," Mrs. Mae Rutan; nursery rhyme, Mrs. Nellie Graham; songs and piano selections, Miss Antoinette Stallone; "The Lost Sheep," Mrs. Dorothy Mullins; recitation, Mrs. Margaret Cannon, and piano selections by Miss Althea Hart.

The prize winning "Musical Chairs" went to Mrs. Nellie Graham.

Plans are now under way for a St. Patrick's party for next meeting.

Appear at Meet Of Eastern Star

Supplementing the regular business meeting of Berkeley Chapter of the Eastern Star, presided over by Worthy Matron Thornman, was an entertainment program put on by pupils of the Bennett Sisters.

Taking part were Pat Goodwin, toe dance; Dorothea Bartlett, gypsy dance and tap number; June Gilchrist, tap dance; Alice Viez, tap dance; Robert Knox, a skit with Mary Jeanne Trudeau and Eddie Bartlett, and a recitation, "Seein' Things."

Accompagnists were Anne Trudeau, Alice Viez and Doris Poulos.

evening with a colorful and almost historic banquet at which MacGregor was presented with a handsomely engraved silver tray before several hundred of his friends of Albany.

WOMEN WERE ALSO BUSY

So much for the bigger events in the history of the Men's Club. The women, meanwhile, were responsible for a number of successful activities such as a big Christmas affair a year ago, their big Christmas Ball recently, an outing at East Bay Regional Park last summer and many others.

Which brings us down to the fact that when the two clubs gather on Sunday morning for the celebration of the second anniversary of the Men's Club, almost anything is liable to happen, and probably will.

The committee serving with Ryken on arrangements includes the following: Charles (Chuck) Terry, Charlie Moore, Harry Dygert, Abe Lemes and Don Bruce. Tickets must be secured from one of these men if reservations are to be made. The time is set for 9:30 a. m.

Dads Will Honor Sons March 19

Judo demonstrations, wrestling, crack pistol shooting and police dogs exemplifying how they trail criminals, will comprise the entertainment program to be given at the "Dads' and Sons' Night" scheduled for March 19 at the Marin School, according to L. V. Foye, president.

All dads and sons of the Marin district are invited to attend and it is expected that the attendance will equal if not surpass the number of persons who turned out for the "Dads' and Daughters' Night."

Tells of New Program for Girl Scouts

Radical innovations for Brownie rituals and handbooks were discussed and voted upon at the recent National Girl Scout convocation held at the Recreation Center in Santa Barbara, according to Mrs. Randolph Crouse, leader of Girl Scout Troop 19 and mentor of Brownie Pack 6 and 7, who attended the meeting. She was accompanied by Mrs. Kathryn McIntyre, troop leader, and her assistant, Mrs. Hazel McDuffie.

In a brief summary Mrs. Crouse said that most of the programs followed were derived from an English institution of a similar nature and had undergone very little change during the past 10 years. Not long ago modifications were made in the uniforms and now it is planned to Americanize the handbook within the next six months to keep pace with the needs of the American girls of this organization.

Last year Miss Mircea Wallace from Girl Scout Headquarters made an extensive tour of the United States to sound out the new policy with the results that it was put to the votes of the leaders. The results will be sent to headquarters in New York to be incorporated in the rules of the organization.

Mrs. McIntyre stated that she had learned a lot at the sessions which were held from 9 o'clock in the morning until 9 o'clock at night Thursday and Friday and up until noon Saturday. No time was lost for even during the lunch hour speakers addressed the assemblage, she said, and was returning to resume her work with a great deal of inspiration.

She reported that one of the most uplifting talks was delivered by the president of Pomona College, whose topic was "Looking into the Future and Living Up To Our Highest Ideals," and the most impressive exemplification of rituals was given by the Mariners.

March 12 will mark the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Girl Scout institution in America.

Church to Have Scotch Program

Eighth century stone structures, built without mortar, cemeteries dating back to the sixth century and the little known Isle of Iona will be among the historical scenes shown at the stereopticon slide lecture which is to be presented by Dr. Stacy M. Warburton at the Albany Baptist Church the evening of Sunday, March 14.

This program, which has been named "Scotch Night" by Rev. W. Floyd Alexander, will also be enlivened by the singing of songs from the land of the heather by native-born Scotchmen.

INFORMAL GATHERING

"Hollywood" was played at an informal gathering held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Platt, 1237 Peralta Avenue. Refreshments were served during the evening. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Milton G. Haines, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Kline, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stevens.

June Blim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Blim, proprietors of the Francis Ann Bakery on San Pablo Avenue, who has been quite ill following an appendicitis operation at the Humboldt Hospital, is now reported recovering and able to receive visitors. She is under the care of Dr. James Hilgessen.

To measure energies of cosmic rays two physicists took 10,000 cloud-chamber photographs on Pike's Peak.

TRIO RESPONSIBLE FOR CLUB

It was the advent of little Dorothy Mae Bruce, here shown with her father, Don Bruce, and the famed baby buggy which brought about the origin of the Men's Breakfast Club, history relates. The donors of the vehicle later organized, elected Bruce as their first president and have kept Dorothy as their mascot.

New Manager Is Named at Albany Firm

With 14 years of experience in sales promotion with the Chevrolet Company Division of General Motors Corporation, Jack Hall this week took up his new post as sales manager of the Murphy Chevrolet Company in Albany.

"Sales and service go hand in hand," he emphasized as he made plans to drive that slogan home to the customers of Murphy's. "With the splendid buy that the new Chevrolet is, as is realized by more and more purchasers each week, we plan to acquaint the people here with the many advantages, that this car possesses at its low price. We anticipate a banner year for our product!"

Hall has had, altogether, more than 25 years in the automotive line; winning his spurs as a retail salesman in Southern California in the small car field. He advanced to his post with General Motors in 1922 and has been in the business since that time, he outlined.

At that time he decided that the retail end of the industry was the field for him because "it's the most interesting and profitable part of the business, and also because it's the largest and fastest moving industry in the United States today."

News Comes to Local Woman of "Crowning" Rites

The letters that Mrs. L. M. Lind of 1405 Portland Avenue gets from her daughter, Mrs. Henry Morse of Healdsburg, are always interesting, but she received one recently that has since given her many amusing moments.

In this letter Mrs. Morse told of an exciting and laughable incident participated in by the two grandsons of the local woman. It was the first birthday of Steven Edward, and his brother, Sols, aged four, decided to make the celebration a memorable one.

The older boy decided that his young brother should be king of the day, and what king worthy of the name ever ruled without a crown? There being no regal headpiece that he could spy, he appropriated the family casseroles and, in a private coronation ceremony, fitted the metal container firmly upon the "king's" head.

And, relates Mrs. Lind, it took the worried parents two hours of hard work with a pair of tin snips to remove the adornment from Steven's brow.

Mrs. Morse, the former Vic Lind, is a graduate of Cornell School and Berkeley High School. Her older son was born here at Humboldt Hospital.

A "vanishing luncheon" was given yesterday by Mrs. J. R. Platt, 1071 Talbot Avenue. Her guests were Mrs. Margaret Roberts, Mrs. Margaret Cannon and Mrs. Roy Perkins. Bridge occupied the afternoon.

Sixty-eight members of the Thousand Oaks Chapel, Solano and Colusa Avenues, last Wednesday. A 12:30 o'clock luncheon was followed by an afternoon of cards. Mrs. Jessie Cruikshank acted as hostess.

Fifty-Piece Orchestra at Marin Friday

Jean Shanis and his 50-piece WPA symphonic orchestra furnished an elaborate musical program at the entertainment given by Marin P. T. A. for the fathers of the Marin School district last Friday.

Two of Shanis' compositions were played, "Pensee Lyrique" and "Dia de Fiesta." Berrell Rexford contributed two baritone solos, and "A Day at the Race Tracks" was read by Lavon Erving.

Black and white predominated in the decorations in the cafeteria where refreshments were served. Table cloths were decorated with staffs and musical notes set off by immense bowls of golden acacia.

Mrs. H. P. Bolton was general chairman assisted by Mrs. D. C. Atwater and Mrs. David Hofer. Mrs. Karl Ziener was in charge of decorations and Mrs. E. L. Stine supervised the serving of refreshments aided by Mrs. Engstrom and Mrs. George Sutton.

Passes Are Given To the Dog Show

Attention, Albany boys and girls, 16 years and younger:

By special arrangements, C. E. Morris has obtained 75 free passes to the big Dog Show in Oakland tomorrow and Sunday. He has offered to give these tickets to the first boys and girls that present this clipping to him at the Y. M. C. A. and Community Center Building, 921 Kains Avenue.

This is a splendid opportunity for you to witness the biggest exhibition of dogs that has ever been held in Alameda County, so clip this item and present it to Morris.

First come, first served, he warns.

IMMEDIATE ACTION HELD UNLIKELY IN JUDGE CASE

"While the City Council is in a position to act upon the appointment of a new judge here, certain elements have arisen this week which have changed the present status of Police Judge George W. Hickman," it was pointed out yesterday by C. N. Lavers, city attorney.

It is considered unlikely therefore, since the appeal of Hickman has been put over until March 10 for hearing, that any action will be taken by the council. Hickman's motion was filed by his attorney, Myron W. Harris.

The local jurist was found guilty last Friday afternoon in the courtroom of Judge Edward Tyrell in Oakland on a charge of attempted grand theft. He was adjudged not guilty on charges of grand theft and solicitation of a bribe, after several hours' deliberation by the jury.

HISTORY OF CASE

Judge Hickman's indictment and subsequent trial and conviction followed an investigation by the District Attorney's office into alleged corruption in Oakland liquor administration conditions.

The Albany attorney and judge was accused at that time of criminal action

Ladies Present Acacia Program

Small hatchets and red, white and blue bunting lent a patriotic air to the "Ladies Night" given for the Acacia Club last Thursday at the Memorial Building.

In the earlier part of the evening motion pictures of the Redwood Highway were shown. This was followed by cards. Men only were considered eligible for awards.

Appearing on the musical program were Mrs. Pearl Coe and her son and daughter in "A Musical Trio" and Miss Roberta Moore in several piano selections.

Many Attend Sixth Annual Y.M.C.A. Week

The sixth anniversary week of Albany Y. M. C. A. and Community Center closed last Saturday with a record-breaking attendance for the week. Seven hundred boys and girls, men and women took part in the various clubs, parties, programs and entertainments, not counting the thousands who witnessed demonstrations at Castlemead High School and Central Trades School in Oakland, and the show staged by the Dramatic Club at San Leandro.

A roller skating party at Rollerland on Friday and the big anniversary dance and basketball game drew record breaking crowds.

In commenting on the week's activities Secretary C. E. Morris said, "The only disappointing part of the entire week's activities was the non-attendance of parents and adults. We feel that if the parents and adults would visit our clubs and work and see what their sons and daughters are doing, a better understanding of the value of the Albany Y. M. C. A. and Community Center would be brought about."

Parents and adults are invited free of charge to all dances, clubs and general activities at any time, he emphasized. Councilors, Junior and Senior leaders and Senior staff are ready and willing to council with parents at any time. The Albany Y. M. C. A. and Community Center is an agency sponsored by the Berkeley Community Chest for character building activities of the city, and both young and old are invited to use the building for clubs and activities without charge of membership.

Party to Honor Saint of Erin

A St. Patrick's card party, to be given by the Albany Hive of Macabees, has been announced by Mrs. Florence Bell. It is to be given the afternoon of Wednesday, March 17, at 8 o'clock at the Macabee Temple on Kains Avenue.

Score cards will cost 35 cents which will include refreshments. The public is invited to attend. Mrs. Mildred Wagner, Mrs. Lena Lawrence and Mrs. Freda Brown will be in charge.

following testimony that he had obtained a promissory note for $500 from the Lakeside Club in Oakland, which he had agreed to represent in an attempt to re-obtain its liquor license which had been taken away by the State Board of Equalization. During the trial a number of attorneys testified in Hickman's defense, asserting that in similar cases they would have charged fees ranging, they declared, from $1000 to $3000. J. Frank Coakley, assistant district attorney, was in charge of the prosecution.

OPINION IS DIVIDED

Opinion is divided, it is revealed, in Albany as to the reasons which brought about the conviction of Hickman. Close friends of the attorney have openly expressed themselves as believing that "it was certainly a case of persecution" by the county authority.

Rumors flew around the city immediately upon hearing of the jury verdict, with practically every qualified lawyer in Albany being mentioned as an "authoritative" successor. Crowded chambers greeted the City Council Monday evening as an expectant tenseness was exhibited for some official action by that body.

Hive Meeting In Honor of Ex-Officers

The sixth anniversary of Albany Hive of the Macabees was feted at their last meeting held Wednesday evening with the Past Commanders filling all the stations.

Those who took over the duties for the evening were Mrs. Mildred Wagner, past commander; Mrs. Florence Bell, commander; Mrs. Maude Mello, lieutenant commander; Mrs. Lena Lawrence, chaoalain; Mrs. Irene Borges, sergeant, and Mrs. Helen Jones, mistress-at-arms.

The Sir Knights were entertained and among those who addressed the assemblage were Art Taveira, Augun Lawrence, Lisle Green, Joe Thelen, Manuel Borges and Jack Mattos.

The remainder of the evening was spent downstairs in the recreation room playing cards. Refreshments followed, served at a table prettily decorated in pink and white with sprays of acacia lending a vernal note.

The southern dinner recently given by this lodge was declared to have been a huge success and the proceeds which were over $32 were turned over to the Sir Knights as a gesture of appreciation for the kitchen which they added to the building a short time ago. The money will be used, it is expected, to obtain linoleum for the new unit. Ninety-nine persons attended the dinner.

Meyer-Detton Meet Tonight

Dr. Freddie Meyer, disliked by some fans but nevertheless a consistent winner, gets a chance at the heavy-weight wrestling championship of the world tonight at the Oakland Auditorium when he meets Dean Detton in a title match.

Detton defended his title last week against Frankie Malcewicz and was signed for the Meyer match immediately.

Before Dean won the championship Meyer defeated him at the auditorium. Meyer believes he can do it again.

Since winning the title Detton has been meeting all comers and erasing past defeats. Both men can be rough and know all the science connected with the sport. Meyer scored his first win with a toe-hold and plans the same attack tonight.

Promoter Ad Santel has signed the Red Phantom to meet two men in the semi-windup. His contract calls for him to spill Slim Zimbelman and "Red" Vaggonne inside of 15 minutes.

Serrells, treasurer; Mrs. Joe Vila, historian; Mrs. Eloise Dennis, auditor and Mrs. Constance Dietschy, parliamentary.

The San Carlo Opera Company's performance of "La Traviata" this week was enjoyed by a number of Albany persons. In one party were Mr. and Mrs. John Viarengo, Mrs. A. G. Edmonds, mother of the latter, and Mrs. J. Viarengo, mother of the local policeman.

An exhaustive study of Mexico is being made at the Marin School under the direction of Miss Anita Van Meter, according to Allan Keim, principal. This subject will be tied in with the pupils' class work, Mexican songs being sung in the vocal classes and Mexican art imitated in the drawing classes.

AT ALBANY HIGH SCHOOL

With every man on the squad getting into the game, the Cougars of Albany High School won their first baseball game of the season last Monday, defeating the Emeryville Spartans by a score of 12 to 1. The game, the first of many practice tilts, showed Coach Kelly Bryan the material with which he will attempt to mold Albany's third straight S. A. C. A. L. championship baseball team. A win this year will give A. H. S. the highly prized championship trophy for good.

This year boasts the largest baseball turnout in the school's history, with eight pitchers reporting for duty. The mound staff is led by Al England, last year's relief pitcher, and Art Eppson, who played winter ball with Murphy's Chevrolets and was offered a trial with the San Francisco Seals.

Lloyd Samaha, new to the varsity but with junior varsity experience, Roy Pitter, Norman Ferguson, Eddie Hayden of the Remar League; Richard Ferguson, former Cougar chucker, and Joe Lawson, last year's southpaw, who had arm trouble, make up the pitching staff.

In the infield, Bryan has at the first sack Art Eppson, who will alternate between that position and the pitcher's box, Hal Lehman, last year substitute first sacker, and Walter Blackburn, a new prospect.

At the keystone position is Art Barassi, an outfielder last year. The short patch will be well handled by Captain Ray Arnold, who played second last year. The "hot" corner will be taken care of by Bob Nora, also of the Remar League. Behind the plate Pat Cola, baseball star and last year's captain, will hold out. Victor Stallone, last year's reserve catcher, is also to be depended on this season.

The outer gardens will be well patrolled this year by Gene Houser, Remar player; Joel Guay, Bill Schoonhoven and Charles Tschornor. All have plenty of experience and will undoubtedly greatly aid the fight to capture the fourth straight league title.

FORM BOYS' LEAGUE

Once only a dream, but now a reality, a Boys' League has been formed at the school, having its inception at the boys' assembly last Tuesday in the Veterans Memorial Building. Lester Halcomb, boys' commissioner, spoke. Talking pictures were shown dealing with the automobile industry and the Navy.

SAFETY ASSEMBLY

"Take It Easy" was the title of a talk given by Rev. Fred S. Stripp at the "Safety" assembly last Friday. Mr. Stripp's talk contained mention of the recent auto accident which cost the life of Margaret Ott, a former student at the school.

TO GIVE THREE PLAYS

On March 15 and 16, it has been announced, three plays will be presented. The first, a two-act offering called "A Scream in the Dark," is a hilarious comedy with plenty of thrills and chills. In the cast are Vincensina DeBlasi, LeRoy Hoffman, Ann Tansley, Florence Glenn, Dick Allen, Marjorie Meredith, Walter Frisvold, Joe Lawson and Harry Shalinsky. Miss Miriam Gilsenan is in charge. "Stolen Princess" is the title of a one-act production, directed by Paul Nathan, with the following cast: Mervyn Peterson, Christina Hansen, Howard Engstrom, Dante Mazzoni and Muriel Echnor.

William Feeny and William Woolworth of the faculty are in charge of the third play, "Where the Cross Is Made." By Eugene O'Neill, this one-act presentation will be offered by Richard Kuhlman, Betty McPherson, Louis Marengo, Herbert Foley, Ronald Knox, Kenneth Stevenson and Lester Halcomb.

The team will be an unlimited team and a second team for high school fellows will be made up later to play several prominent teams of Oakland.

GIRLS' HI-Y PLANS SOCIAL

A social dance and party will be staged next Saturday evening by members of the Girls' Hi-Y Club with Miss Margaret Dougherty, president, in charge. Dancing, games, and refreshments will make up the evening. Each person attending will be fined five cents when they enter the front door. Proceeds will be used to send delegates to the Older Girls Conference at Richardson Springs, March 13 and 14. The Hi-Y Girls meet on Thursday evening and all senior high school girls are invited to become members.

SQUAD TO VISIT CLIPPER SHIPS

Members of the Y. M. C. A. Junior Red Cross First Aid team will be guests of the members of the Pan American First Aid Class for a visit on one of the Clippers next Monday night. Permission has been secured from company officials to take the squad who are assisting in training China Clipper crews in First Aid work for a trip through one of the big liners. Each Monday the captain of the squad, Dorothy McCormack, assigns various members to assist C. E. Morris, Red Cross instructor at the Alameda airport.

This class is very popular not only with company employees but with several outsiders who are taking the standard course in Red Cross First Aid.

GIRLS TO RICHARDSON SPRINGS

Six girls from the Albany Hi-Y Club will leave Saturday, March 13 to attend the Northern California Older Girls' Conference at Richardson Springs. "Music is furnished by our own Albany Orchestra headed by Bill Lacy. This orchestra is fast becoming one of the most popular orchestras of young people in the East Bay. Our clubs and our young people work hard to make these dances a huge success in order that Summer Camp may be a success. Dancing starts at 8:30 p. m."

These youths of Cornell School are a part of the school's splendid organization of Junior Traffic Police, a group which has achieved a fine record in the performance of its duty of guarding the safety of the children while entering and leaving the school.

The boys are under the supervision of Officer Frank Davis, of the local police department, seen at the right.

With Anniversary Week now in the past, and a glorious success, our thoughts turn to Summer Camp. "We plan this year to hold the largest camp ever held and to give the boys and girls who attend one of the best times they have ever had," said C. E. Morris, who will serve as camp director for the tenth annual Summer Camp to open this year on June 20. Selection of location and leaders have not been made but every effort will be made to secure Jordan Park, the site of the 1936 camp. ## Life of American Heroine Is Revealed in Book by L. Hare, Local Attorney

Biography of Lucretia Mott, Outstanding Woman Pioneer of Nineteenth Century, Is New Literary Effort

An Albany writer, Lloyd C. M. Hare, is author of a book soon to be released by the American Historical Society of New York, according to advices received here recently from the publishers. The title is to be "The Greatest American Woman." The book is a biography of Mrs. Lucretia Mott, an outstanding social pioneer of the last century when our country was undergoing a crisis of change and progress.

Mrs. Mott was a Quaker preacher who helped chart the disturbed current of American thought prior to the Civil War. A woman of rare beauty of character, gentility, and refinement, yet she was never afraid to challenge the evils of her day, or to speak upon the public platform, an act then considered unwomanly and indecent.

Lucretia Mott was the real founder of the woman's rights movement in America and England. She was the chief feminine worker in the struggle to rid the country of slavery, and was always on the side of the humble and the oppressed. She advocated labor unions in a day when they were almost unknown and generally considered illegal. She proscribed war and worked diligently for toleration in politics and religion.

When 80 years of age this remarkable woman made her last public appearance at an anniversary meeting of the woman's rights movement. Hare writes of her at this time: "What changes she had lived to see in the popular estimate of herself! Once considered a dangerous innovator in the social and religious world, the slow moving masses that feared her a half century ago as an infidel, a fanatic, and an unsexed woman, had followed her footsteps until a broader outlook had expanded their vision. They now revered her as a prophet and a saint. Yet Lucretia Mott had changed the bold background of her views only in the perfection of details.

"The 'vagaries' of the anti-slavery struggle had been coined into the law. The 'wild fantasies' of the abolitionists were now the Thirteenth, Fourteenth, and Fifteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States. Infidel Hicksite principles which had shocked Christendom were now cornerstones of the liberal religious movement in America. Woman's demands for social, civil, and political equality—grinned at by editors from the Atlantic to the Pacific—had been recognized in a measure by the courts and legislatures of Great Britain and the United States. The colleges, trades and professions gradually had been opened to woman's admission."

Mr. Hare, the author, is a long-time resident of Albany. A World War veteran he entered the University of California in 1922 to complete his law studies interrupted by the war. He took his LL.B. degree in 1926. The same year he was admitted to the California Bar and took up practice in San Francisco. He edited several volumes of "California Decisions" and "California Appellate Decisions," and in 1928 was appointed an attaché to the State Supreme Court.

Besides his service on the staff of legal publications, he has contributed articles to the Dictionary of American Biography issued under the auspices of the American Council of Learned Societies. He is known as the author of "Thomas Mayhew, Patriarch to the Indians," a book published several

New Station Is Opened to Serve Public

Informally opened to the motoring public last Saturday was the new spacious Milo's and Ralph's Super Service Station at Ramona and Solano Avenues.

This latest addition to the city's business firms is featuring Richfield gasolines and Richlube oil, the oil that is guaranteed to remove carbon from your motor.

In addition to the latest complete lubricating facilities, the Super Service Station is handling Yale tires and tubes, Richfield batteries and motoring necessities and accessories that will greatly aid in making modern driving the pleasure it should be.

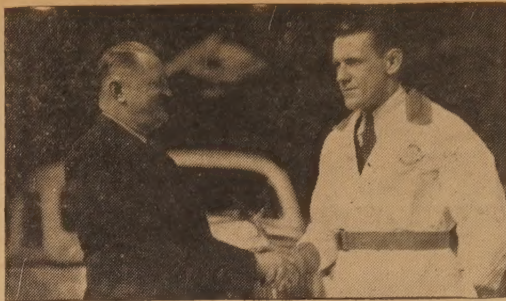

To help the motorist in maintaining at all times the highest efficiency of his car, the station has installed the newest types of mechanism for checking the performance of the various parts. Among this equipment is a spark plug tester, the use of which will quickly inform a motorist if his engine is delivering its full power and mileage.

While the official opening will be held next week, an invitation has been extended to all motorists to drive in and inspect the complete driving service which the station is able to offer.

Operators of the station are Milo F. Jirka of 1435 Garfield Avenue and Ralph E. Warner, also a resident of this vicinity. Both men have had considerable experience in the operation and management of large service stations and will bring this knowledge to the autoists of the community, to the latter's benefit.

years ago at New York and London, which was received with favor by English and American reviewers.

ALBANY POST

No. 292

The most interesting visit the members of Albany Post have made in connection with inviting other Posts to be guests on March 19, was to Carl Ross Post in Stockton last week. The Stockton Legionnaires were much interested and Warren Atherton made an appeal for the Post to have the largest representation of any Post in California. The Commander of the Post, Comrade Fuller, appointed a committee to see if arrangements could be made to have a special train come to Albany. Commander Leon Fay of Albany Post was the spokesman for the group meeting. The others from Albany who journeyed to Stockton were James D. Daly, W. L. Holland, Harold Knowles, E. R. Birks, A. H. Harrison, George Foley, Clarence Finn, Fred Houser, Christopher Cox, Leon Fay, Walker Lyon, general chairman of the Smoker Committee, Plants of the earth described by scientists amount to about a quarter of a million, but only a few are economically important.

and James Sartain.

The regular meeting of the Post will be held tonight when all the committee chairmen of the Smoker will give their reports of the work their respective committees have completed to date, and appeal for the support of the membership in the work of the "Big Show." J. R. Moore and Fred Houser must have the names of those who are to serve on the refreshment committee Friday, because of the work this committee has, that of serving all the guests, so it must have the largest staff of workers. Mayor O. C. Yenne gave his promise to Moore that he would work on this committee immediately after the guests he will have with him are seated. Councilman George Batchelder will be on the committee under the chairmanship of Max Etinghoff. Walter Lyon, general chairman of the entire show and Commander Fay are asking that the entire membership of the Post turn out at this meeting in order that the heads of the various committees can assign them to work for the night of March 19.
